Guinn Center to host Tax Policy Townhall April 21, 2015

LAS VEGAS, NV— The Nevada Legislature is currently considering several tax proposals to increase funding for education. The Governor has proposed restructuring the Business License Fee (SB252). Other proposals include a Special Revenue Fee (SB378) and an increase in the Modified Business Tax (AB464).

To help community members understand the proposals and how they could affect different types of businesses, particularly small businesses, the Guinn Center for Policy Priorities is sponsoring a Tax Policy Townhall. The event will feature a panel discussion with tax policy experts, followed by a question and answer session. Panelists will include Dr. Nancy E. Brune and Victoria Carreón of the Guinn Center, UNLV William S. Boyd Law Professor Francine Lipman, Former Assembly Speaker Barbara Buckley (D-Las Vegas), and former Senator Randolph Townsend (R-Washoe County).

The event is cosponsored by the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law, College of Southern Nevada, Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance, Accion Nevada, and the Urban Chamber of Commerce. The event is free and open to the public. Event details are shown below:

"The Guinn Center for Policy Priorities is pleased to partner with education and business organizations to help educate our community about the tax proposals pending before the Nevada Legislature," said Dr. Nancy E. Brune, Executive Director of the Guinn Center. "The Tax Policy Townhall will provide business owners – particularly small business owners – with the opportunity to ask questions and gain a better understanding of the potential impact on their individual businesses."

The Guinn Center for Policy Priorities is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, bipartisan, policy center focused on providing independent and data-driven analysis of critical policy issues facing Nevada and the Intermountain West. The Guinn Center engages policy-makers, experts, and the public with innovative, fact-based research and analysis to advance policy solutions and inform debate.
